

Eloy, Waves Of Intuition

Ice and fire in my heart - elusive dreams are torn apart a restless age fading away - a new millennium Announcing a turn of time, a presentimental sign let shivers run down my spine In starlit nights all visions fly to highest heights towards the sky time standing still in silent space
a magic spell enchancing the world around tuned in celestial sound where refuge of mind is found Tides of emotions rise - drifting inside my mind riding mystical waves - leaving all cares behind memories from the past - easing the pensive mind silent echoes rebound - and lead me to virginal shores unknown before
Tides of emotions rise - drifting inside my mind
silent echoes rebound - and lead me to virginal shores where deep intuition awakes to reveal - secret doors, unknown before
