Elton John, Chole

Hw come you're so understanding When I tell you all my lies And pretending to believe them See through all my alibis And I need you more than ever And I want you till the end Chloe

How you handle what you live through I can never hope to learn Taking all the pain I give you Loving blindly in return And I need you more than ever I will always be your friend Chloe, Chloe

Chloe, what you gonna do about me Chloe, what you gonna do What you gonna do about me

You're the lifeline that I cling to When I feel like giving in When the dreams that I rely on Start to wear a little thin Then I need you more than ever And I want you till the end Chloe, Chloe
