Elton John, Ego

Empty Garden (Hey Hey Johnny) Elton John (Elton John/Bernie Taupin) What happened here? As the New York sunset disappeared I found an empty garden among the flagstones there Who lived here? He must have been a gardener that cared a lot Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop But now it all looks strange, it's funny how one insect Can damage so much grain Amd what's it for? This little empty garden by the brownstone door And in the cracks along the sidewalk, nothing grows no more Who lived here? He must have been a gardener that cared a lot Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop And we are so amazed, we're crippled and we're dazed A gardener like that one, no one can replace CHORUS: And I've been knocking but no one answers And I've been knocking most all the day Oh, and I've been calling Oh, 'hey hey johnny' Can't you come out to play And through their tears Some say he farmed his best in younger years But he'd have said that roots grow stronger if he could hear Who lived there He must have been a gardener that cared a lot Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop Now we pray for rain, and with every drop that falls We hear your name And I've been knocking but no one answers And I've been knocking most all the day Oh, and I've been calling Oh, 'hey hey johnny' Can't you come out to play Johnny can't you come out to play? Johnny in your empty garden
