

Elton John, Rock Me When He's Gone

Music by Elton John

Lyrics by Bernie Taupin

Available on the album Rare Masters

Warm the wine and give it to me one more time again

I'm just a rolling stone who needs a drop of rain

And to taste your honey, Mona is like licking on the sun

My truck's hid in the back yard so come here and give me some

Said lady, that's the way

You've gotta rock me when he's gone

You make me feel like a diesel train going home

We got so much to give each other

And we've only just begun

So take me baby, break me lady

Gotta rock me when he's gone

Break the bread in two and you can give me half

I've ridden hard and fast just to make you laugh

To make you laugh I've stood knee-deep in mud outside your door

Clutching in my hand a border rose from Baltimore
