

Eluveitie, King

I high king
Sovereign and servant
Holder of divine
Regality bestowed
In the omphalos grove
My king ship
The song of the gods
Thou shalt know me by my fruits
The abundance in which we grew
The sings and wonders at our feet
Which the flight of the crows revealed
I am the crown of Galia
I am the Oak in the Nemeton
I am the servant of Antumnos children
I am the will of our gods
Ambicatus is my name
My chosen set forth to conquer
Kindling beacons
my kingdom prospered and crew
Thou shalt know me by my fruits
From the hercynan and forests to beyond the sky scraping alps to which the flight of the crows led us
I am the crown of Galia
I am the Oak in the Nemeton
I am the servant of Antumnos children
I am the will of our gods
I am the crown of Galia
I am the Oak in the Nemeton
I am the servant of Antumnos children
I am the will of our gods
Ambicatus is my name