Elvis Presley, A Dog's Life

(Words & Den Weisman) If I had my life to live over I know just what I'd like to be A pampered pet of a rich brunette Sitting on my mama's knee Someone to love me Someone to care Rubberduck dubble little fingers through my hair I need a dog's life What a life, that's good enough for me That's good enough for me If I had a bone to be picking A picking chicken or a steak Curled up there in an easy chair Man, that won't be hard to take I'll always be faithful That's what I'd be Never bite a hand that feeds me, no siree Just lead a dog's life What a life That's good enough for me That's good enough for me I'd find me a pink little poodle And lose my noodle over her I chase her round all over town Just to ruffle up her fur Nuzzle her muzzle A hole in her paw Greatest case of puppy lovin' you ever saw It's called a dog's life What a life That's good enough for me You heard me say it now That's good enough for me

That's good enough for me
