

Elvis Presley, Hurt

(words & music by J.Crane - A. Jacobs)

I'm so hurt to think that you lied to me

I'm hurt way down deep inside of me

You said our love was true

And we'll never, never part

Now you've got someone new

And it breaks my heart

I'm hurt, much more than you'll ever know

Yes darling, I'm so hurt

Because I still love you so

Even though you hurt me

Like nobody else could ever do

I would never hurt, hurt you
