

Elvis Presley, In The Ghetto

As the snow flies
On a cold and gray Chicago mornin'
A poor little baby child is born
In the ghetto
And his mama cries
'cause if there's one thing that she don't need it's another hungry mouth to feed
In the ghetto

People, don't you understand the child needs a helping hand or he'll grow to be an angry young man some day Take a look at you and me, are we too blind to see,
do we simply turn our heads and look the other way

Well the world turns and a hungry little boy with a runny nose plays in the street as the cold wind blows
In the ghetto

And his hunger burns so he starts to roam the streets at night and he learns how to steal and he learns how to fight
In the ghetto

Then one night in desperation a young man breaks away
He buys a gun, steals a car, tries to run, but he don't get far
And his mama cries

As a crowd gathers 'round an angry young man face down on the street with a gun in his hand
In the ghetto

As her young man dies,
on a cold and gray Chicago mornin', another little baby child is born
In the ghetto
