Elvis Presley, Kismet

When you meet by chance, it's not by chance It's kismet
When two hearts stand still, it's destiny's will It's kismet

The wheel of fortune spins Round and around it goes Who will the arrow point to Only kismet knows

Until you came by, kismet and I, were strangers But now that you're here, it's suddenly clear we've met This is my lucky day, love's in the cards I'd say Thanks to kismet, kismet, kismet
