

Elvis Presley, Mary Lou Brown

(Words & Music Red West)

I'll hold you tight in the moonlight tonight

I love you Mary Lou Brown

Twinkeling stars told the milky white way

That I marry Mary Lou Brown

And I will tell all the world

Of my young Southern girl,

See her tonight beyond moonlight

So I can hold Mary tight

I'll bring my guitar to the moonlight tonight

I love you Mary Lou Brown

Imagine your heart floating right up the sigh (?)

I love you Mary Lou Brown

Down by the green river side with my arms open wide

I'll wait for her, only for her

Mary Lou Brown's mine tonight

Mary Lou Brown's mine tonight
