

Elysium, Digital Future Anthem

full speed ahead towards synchronized sunrise focused in weak eye deconstruct our memoirs neurotic human form negative system report feel sorry for losers neither shrink nor struggle insipid & helpless
no emergency exit exhausted coexistence steal the last breath scratch those shadow mirrors there's no turning back as we're ready for new dawn upcomin breakin' news
sadistic web tentacles 28 already old stuck in great spirall fall chaotic killin' spree none of us will take it's toll under the surface - the beast well hides self respect is all we've gained new world is ours to come just believe in a splendid failure digital future anthem
