

Elysium, Starguardians

fire... the cursed and the blessed chaotic lightning's yield burn!
shadows' father
enigma of gods
wind...
the ire from above
forgotten realms reveille thunders!
bravehearted symphony
the elements to come
break curtains of clouds awaiting the call we are dancing under the moon descendants of storm
renewal harbingers
centuries fall
as we invoke the powers of earth rain...
the gift from the skies
sorrowful mourners' tears sad lullaby
for those who have left behind gaia...
the mother of men
in restless and tired sleep
she dreams
her children arise
united we stand
in brotherhood of our blood starguardians' fate
for battles to come we're sworn forthcoming doom
hurricane follow us as we invoke the powers of ear
