

Emarosa, Set It Off Like Napalm

Out of place, put him down, he's all strung out
Don't hold your breath for too long, this moment's fading out now
Our souls have caught on fire
Well I don't really wanna walk that line
I don't really wanna cross that line

Lets make this now or never
And fade it out, the storms that I love
The heat is getting stronger and I plan to take advantage
No matter what they say
The tide is slowly going out, tonight...

Oh god, please open your eyes, its time to finalize
Let's make this now or never
Set it off and let it burn

Take your form, let it be the scariest, let it be most furious.

I am the boy who sets your girl on fire
and when she dances oh she knows it's right
We'll send them all to hell

I am the boy who sets your girl on fire
and when she dances oh she knows it's right
We'll send them all to hell

I am the boy who sets your girl on fire
and when she dances oh she knows it's right
We'll send them all to hell

I am the boy who sets your girl on fire
and when she dances oh she knows it's right
We'll send them all to hell
