

Emblem3, Chloe (You're The One I Want)

Chloe I know your sister turns everyone
But you're the one I want

Yeah, Front page magazine
Everybody says that she's the queen
But that's new to me
I just want to let let you know that
She likes the fishing lights
I love the way that she prefers candle light
Stay close by my side
I just want a chance to show that

If only you could believe in yourself the way I believe in you
I-I do (but you're the one I want)
If only you see all of the beautiful things that I see in you
It's true

Chloe I know your sister turns everyone on
But oh baby, I have no doubt your the one that I want

You think she's got it all but that don't make her better
You got my heart and that's the only thing that matters
Chloe I know your sister turns everyone on
But you're the one I want

Fast lanes, limousines
Baby there can be not guarantees
But if, you're with me you know I can guarantee yeah
Cause I'm attracted to you passion, be yourself forget the fashion
Just keep that smile on, that you're flashing
You and I deserve to be forever ever lasting

If only you could believe in yourself the way I believe in you
I-I do (but you're the one I want)
If only you see all of the beautiful things that I see in you
It's true

Chloe I know your sister turns everyone on
But oh baby, I have no doubt your the one that I want
You think she's got it all but that don't make her better
You got my heart and that's the only thing that matters
Chloe I know your sister turns everyone on
But you're the one I want

All you Chloe you Chloe's
They don't show you love enough
You should now that you're my diamond in the rough

Chloe I know your sister turns everyone on
But oh baby, I have no doubt your the one that I want

You think she's got it all but that don't make her better
You got my heart and that's the only thing that matters
Chloe I know your sister turns everyone on
But you're the one I want
