

Embodiment, Belly Up

ghost dancer, i hear you circle my heart in yours
i'm seeking your presence in hope of dreams come true on subways, train stations i'll save the night for you you're acting, role-playing and swimming in my head you'll burn me down

a wish away
you've burned me down

i'll travel forever in you i'll find my home and silence is broken your name has found my tongue these moments of madness have turned my joy to shame

a wish away

dreams come true

you'll burn me down
