

Embrace, Follow you home

Well, sometimes I see an end
Disguised as a beginning
And sometimes I feel the force of the blow
And everyday I take my toe and I dip it in the water
Everyday it almost freezes me whole

It looks like I'm off the scene
A survivor on a screen
Like I've got nothing left with nothing to show
And there's no reason to pretend
Your middle name's forgiving
I can see, you've got a party to throw

Ooo, ooo, ooo
I'm going to follow you home /3x

I won't quit while you're ahead
I won't pay for what I said
You're going to have to take it out of my nose
Because every word just makes me choke
Makes me sorry that I spoke
That's what I get for talking back I suppose

I've been queueing up for this
Now my name's not on the list
And I missed who to call
And get to the show
Well, I don't mean to rush you on
I was stood here all along
And I've been waiting for a lifetime or so

Ooo, ooo, ooo
I'm going to follow you home /3x

You smashed the glass and set me free
But you don't want no more from me
Your final kiss jammed in the final piece
So I could see
I wrote you letters
I sang you songs
But nothing works on you no more
I know it's much too late but I can't let go
Is there still hope?

Ooo, ooo, ooo /6x
I'm going to follow you home /3x
I'm going to follow you...

The words that I wasted were bad adverts
All cut and pasted and nothing works
The songs that I sang you just made it worse
With melodies you don't follow
It says on your wall
That you're over me
Your image, an outline that burns my screen
But I'm not your stalker it's just my need
I said it to see if you'd follow me
