

Embrace, Maybe I Wish

Maybe I'll call, and then maybe I won't ever be there, I know you need me,
I don't know no one like you do.
So I'm taking my time, taking some time alone,
time I realised the pain I'm feeding,
I don't know no one like you do.

If I'd known you'd follow,
I'd be there 'til the end,
and just give me strength if you can,
And I've no sorrow I'll be feeling in the end,
and just give me strength if you can.

So I wrote out a list of all that I've ever done, all that I miss is there to meet me,
I don't know no one like you do.
And I'll never be there,
and I'll never let you know I'll ever care about your feeling,
I don't know no one like you do.

If I'd known you'd follow,
I'd be there 'til the end,
and just give me strength if you can,
If I'd known the sorrow I'd be feeling in the end,
and just give me strength again,
c'mon and give me strength for all I've done, just give me strength to go on.

Happiness take my hand, I'll be alone until you understand all that I want now our love has gone, Happiness take my hand, I'll be alone until she'd understand what good that I know you're out the door.

Now if I'd known you'd follow,
I'd be there 'til the end,
just give me strength if you can.
If I'd have known this, God would have jumped up, get in line,
and just give me strength again,
c'mon, just give me strength for all I've done,
Just give me strength.
