

Embrace, Milk And Honey

I've had better days,
Days when the milk and the honey, it
Poured into me,
Yeah..
And I've had better times
When I was up on my feet and not
Down on my knees,
Yeah..
Now I want me and my
To go where there's milk and there's honey and
Take what we need,
Yeah..
Across that finish line,
We'll see that we're running for nothing with
No one to beat.

And every day I feel the same thing,
That you and I know we'll find our way again,
We are all on the same road if you understand,
Let's do what we can..

And I've had better times,
Times when the milk and the honey, it
Poured like a stream,
Yeah..
And right before my eyes,
People were giving into need and not into greed,
Yeah..

And every day I feel the same thing,
That you and I, we will find our way again,
We are all on the same road if you understand,
Let's do what we can..

That's why I say a prayer for you now..
I'll say another prayer for you and me,
And though I know we'll never hear the answer,
I'll say another prayer for you and me,
And so I'll say another prayer for you now,
I'll say another prayer for you and me,
And though I know we'll never hear the answer,
I'll say another prayer for you and me,
You and me.

And every day I feel the same thing,
That you and I know we'll see those days again,
We are all on the same road if you understand,
Let's do what we can..

And I've had better days,
Days when the milk and the honey, it
Poured into me,
Yeah..
Yeah...
