

Embrace Today, Your Perfect Crime

You can't blame me for a life lost,
When everything I ever did was stick up for what I think is right,
Just like you can't blame the pencil for your fucking misspelled words,
You can't blame me for your mistakes,
It's all the same, Your thoughts, Your words, all the same,
So why don't you just cast a stone at some one else that you don't know,
Wrong or right, it's all the same,
Just like you can't blame the pencil for your fucking misspelled words,
You can't blame for your mistakes,
Your thoughts, Your words, all the same,
Your perfect crime has no one to blame but yourself
