Emerson Drive, He Hopes She Knows

He's workin the late shift tonight But his thoughts are not there. There's a girl he's missing her He's got some feelings he needs to share. No matter what he does He just can't forget The times they had And the special night they met.

CHORUS And he hopes she knows that there's nothing in the world that he wants more that the love of that sweet girl.

She thinks she's the lucky one But he thinks differently to be with her he'd give anything He just wants her to see now that he's found found her there's nothing more he needs He can't wait to see where their love leads

REPEAT CHORUS 2 TIMES
