

Emerson Drive, Stone Angel

Stone Angel
(Print the Lyrics)

She stopped counting the times
Her heart's been broken
Too many promises and too many tears
Yeah each time somebody hurt her
She fell a little bit further
Heaven left her stranded here

CHORUS

She's a stone angel
Her wings are just too heavy to fly
She's a stone angel
It's not that there's no love left inside
She's just heard one too many goodbyes

Her dreams unguarded she was such an easy target
For every joker with a smoking gun
Yeah Yeah
For every lie they told her
She turned a little bit colder
Now she don't trust anyone

REPEAT CHORUS TWO TIMES

Na na na na na na
She's She's She's
A stone angel
Na na na na na na
A stone angel
