

Emigrate, EAT YOU ALIVE (feat. Frank Dellé)

I've got a feeling got to Take this damn world apart
Burn through every single night

God speeding up, would've got to Become a brand new star
Screaming
Head straight for the light

Eat you alive!!
Ripped right from the hands of Heaven
Better keep on running
Eat you alive!!
I will eat you alive!

Go numb and done devotion
And thought I always knew
Lonely girls they don't survive

I'll keep my head exploding
I'll keep on loving you
Feed me
I'm your Parasite!

Eat you alive!!
Ripped right from the hands of Heaven
Better keep on running
I'll you alive!
Eat you alive!!

Get ready...
There was a time
I wasn't feeling it and I wasn't ready to go
Was feeling divine tell what I was written
Get on the right food in the show

Was taking me high, taking me low
I'll try to catch up the result
I'm taking the dish where can I put it
Getting it deeper than hell of a hole

Eat you alive!!
Ripped right from the hands of Heaven
Living the price
Define there way, where no one's standing
Always keep you're running
Eat you Alive !!
I'll eat you alive!
