

Emigrate, Emigrate

Eagle flies across the flag bureaucracy is such a drag
behold a pale horse tonight
The men in black are out of sight.

(chorus)
She comes...
He comes...
We come...
She comes...

Across the oceans in my mind
across the skies I left behind
A land of opportunity
A land to fill MY DESTINY!

EMIGRATE! (x4)

I've been alone a long, long time
So what, I take what should be mine
I've searched the sea of empty eyes
And severed all my family ties
A mercenary feeds my soul
A plastic world, no getting old
A monkey wears the age-old crown,
The other monkeys getting down.

She comes...
He comes...
We come...
She comes...
Welcome.

EMIGRATE! (x4)

Walk through fear!
Leave you, dear!
Never wanted to create a tear!
Walk through fear!
If you dare...

EMIGRATE!
