

Emilia, Daddys Girl

Daddy, Daddy
Your little girl is really growing up now
And you will see
That my life will be so fine
And I'm gonna need you even more now
It's hard to be a woman sometimes
Daddy, Daddy
Needing you is natural

And when you're down and low
Then I will be there
Cause you, can trust in me
I'll be there for you

Chorus:
I'll always be
My Daddy's girl
'Cause that is the way
It was meant to be
I'll always be
My Daddys girl
'Cause that is the way
It was meant to be

Daddy, Daddy
You've been calling me
too many times now
Why can't you see that I have my own life
But I still love you even stronger
Even if it is in another way
Daddy, Daddy
Needing you is natural

And when you're down and low
Then I will be there
Cause you, can trust in me
I'll be there for you

Chorus
