

Emilia, Life

A heart can break so easily
Friendship is forever
We'll stick together as one
'Cause we'll show them just what we can

And he'll never, never, never
Treat you better anyway
Wipe away your big tears
The boy is just not worth it
Listen to what I have to say:

Chorus:

Life

Will never be the same
Will never be the same
If you take control
I tell you girl
Will never be the same
Will never be the same
If you rule your world
And then you'll feel that You'll make it better on your own

A freind is there beside you
To share your ups and downs
Call me up when you needAnd I'll make you forget that cloud
And I'll always, always Keep you smiling if I can
Let's go out together
And have some fun tonight
Listen to what I have to say

Chorus.

Bridge:

Trust your heart and swear
That you'll always be proud
I'm telling you once again that you are P.R.E.T.T.Y.
And don't believe anything else
