

Emilia, Life (Will Never Be The Same)

This is to all you ladies out there who has suffered from a broken heart..
This is for you!

A heart can break so easily
Friendship is forever
We'll stick together as one
'Cause we'll show them just what we can
And he'll never, never, never treat you better anyway
Wipe away your big tears
The boy is just not worth it
Listen to what I have to say...

Chorus:

Life will never be the same
Will never be the same
If you take control
I tell you girl
Will never be the same
Will never be the same
If you rile your world
And then you feel that You'll make it better on your own..

A friend is there beside you
To share your ups and downs
Call me up when you need
And I'll make you forget that cloud
And I'll always, always, always Keep you smiling if I can
Let's go out together
And have some fun tonight
Listen to what i have to say...

Chorus

Brige:

Trust your heart and swear
That you'll always be proud
I'm telling you once again that you are P.R.E.T.T.Y.
And don't believe anything else..

This is to all you ladies out there who has suffered from a broken heart..
This is for you!

A heart can break so easily, but your friends is there for you, no matter what....

Chorus
