

Emiliana Torrini, Me & Armini

i had my life
i know my place
i belong in your arms again and i've been waiting for you to belong to me

some might say
i'm a silly woman to wait but i know you still hold my love

some people think that
i'm heading for a meltdown
that i'm sitting by the phone
that i worrie but no

when i feel your body close i burn up in smoke
and i swore i keep waiting

now i see this city
won't hold my love
for armini
i know he's close
n' i dream
i just keep waiting
i keep waiting

some people think that
that i'm sitting by the phone

this i know
she doesn't love you like i do yes it's clear
she'll never love you like me you people say that i'm heading for a meltdown that i'm just sitting by the phone that i worry but no

i don't worry cause i know

me and armini
me and my armini...
