

Emilie Simon, In The Lake

If I had no worries
If I had no pain
Would you stay close to me
When it starts to rain

Would you be my lover
Would you be my lover
We are always a little bit far but never late
We are always a little bit far
In the lake

If the sky grows darker
If I go insane
Would you still care for me
When it starts to rain

Would you be my lover
Would you be my lover
We are always a little bit far but never late
We are always a little bit far

Happy girl
I want to be the happy girl
I want to be the happy girl
I want to be the happy girl

Would you be my lover
Would you be my lover
We are always a little bit far but never late
We are always a little bit far
In the lake
