

Emily Lily, Without you

Today in the morning I thought about you
I sensed your presence then
I knew that very longingly
But I didn't make it feel
Without you
So sadly for me
Sometimes he is happening that also tears will start to flow
At least I know that this way he is supposed to be
He doesn't want to hide his feelings
I often miss
and sometimes also tears are flowing
Without you heyyeah
Without you
Of today's night I could not sleep
Because I sensed your presence then
I know that you too you are missing
But you are pretending unavailable
Without you
So sadly for me
Sometimes he is happening that also tears will start to flow
At least I know that this way he is supposed to be
He doesn't want to hide his feelings
I often miss
and sometimes also tears are flowing
Without you heyyeah
Without you
Singing: heyyeah
Listen!!!
Without you, you and you
Everyone we are in a way exceptional
Each of us has it two different worlds
One of them only you know alone
Don't be upset with stupid persons Take care of yourselves and sing the refrain with me yeah!
Without you
So sadly for me
Sometimes he is happening that also tears will start to flow
At least I know that this way he is supposed to be
He doesn't want to hide his feelings
I often miss
and sometimes also tears are flowing
Without you heyyeah
Without you
heyyeah
hey hey
yeah!
heyyeah
