Mr. Eon:

Packing the third eye rush you it's cyclops

They trade in their high tops for night sized Withe rocks

Words in my right, they pass my left ear

It's solid decked out write the books for next year

Bear this grenade you got stuck like virgin

Who that cat splurgin' instead or rehearsin'?

Tough guy, dj travi your high rise

Looking more like ronald then the fuckin fry guys

Go on uptown fucking senioritas

In Taco Bell screaming "vivas gorditas!"

Bring all your dogs i give em rabies

They never had a chance i might chew up all their babies

(Eminem: waaah!)

Pope John Paul the second, brain like satan

Have your beaten girlfriend cooking up bacon

I'm obituite with that shit that you hit

Slow my flick with ya cause mine to pick wit her

Eminem:

My nine is limpin ya six deep when i spray rounds

Hit you with 12 shots in mid air and four more on the way down

The eight straight strays to a kid's hair on the playground

You lay down on a stretcher (Don't get carried away now!)

No pun intended, snapped out of your whip

And leave it un-attended before i whip out this gun and hit it

Unless you want it dented with bullet holes any minute

Cause i can leave your Infinite full of those even if someone's in it

Snap the airbag, hit the corner and park it

You wanted a market, i got her tied up in a chair and gag

Bitches get smacked and grabbed by the hair and dragged

Like cave-women, while i'm grave diggin' with Marilyn Man

Mr. Eon:

If you got a bowl of hash better cash it

Dollar signs flashin' i'ma take the last hit

Eminem:

And if you're spitting whack shit on the microphone

I'ma snatch it outta your hand so fast i'm gonna detach it

Mr. Eon:

If you got a bowl of hash better cash it

Dollar signs flashin' i'ma take the last hit

Eminem:

I'm flabergasted off two tabs of acid

Threw my baby's mother in a nap sack and latched it

Mr. Eon:

Yo, "Eon's whack now", how you dig that?

Couldn't get on my record if you were street rap

Get the greater rate with these rhymes i be totin'

Let's go back online and jerk off on your modem

I got stupid mucus from these loose lips

My loose leaf leave your whole persona weak

To the point when you stand up on your feet {you} best retreat

Let's go back in time and steal my whole seed

The quickening, did a ?briss? at the crispening

I'm exercisin', to uplifting the foot stage

This thing's the nicest, i keep telling you

What the fuck this guy on the corner been selling you?
(Eminem: "here buy this")
Eminem:
I'm e-mailing you, at the wrong website
Mispelling you, break you and put the fear of hell in you
Escape above you, stuff the nurse in a purse
Disperse like i added too many words in a verse
Slim Shady, a perverted virgin at birth {or "version of birth"}
Driving off, leaving the murdered virgin at church
The first person searching the earth for the motherfucker
That pulled the plug when they shoulda alerted the surgeon first
You don't curse and hit with your own words
Leave me alone bitch! I get on my own nerves
And if i don't got two balls and a middle finger to throw up
Then i'm takin' off both shoes and stickin' each middle toe up (fuck y'all!)
Mr. Eon:
If y'all got a bowl of hash better cash it
Dollar signs flashin' i'ma take the last hit (Eminem: "gimmie that")
Eminem:
And if you're spitting whack shit on the microphone
I'ma snatch it outta your hand so fast i'm gonna detach it
Mr. Eon:
So if you got a bowl of has better cash it
Dollar signs flashin' i'ma take the last hit
Eminem:
I'm flabergasted off two tabs of acid
Threw my baby's mother in a hatch-back and latched it
Eminem:
Any disease out there i'm willing to catch it...
