

Eminem, Good Guy (ft. Jessie Reyez)

Since you bought the jury, they'll call me guilty
They'll call me guilty
You bought the jury, they'll call me guilty
Even though you know the real me
You can't beat a cheater, convince a nonbeliever
And I ain't in my feelings, I'm out
But I let you say that you're the good guy Cause this ain't what love looks like Play like, "You're the good guy."
Play like, play like, play like, "You're the good guy."

her ewe go again form heroes to villains used to be you Romeo but we both were jilted a couple of times so we had a slippery slope to deal with but still it gave me hope that we'll get through it together a severed earlobe mailed to you in an E-N-V elope would be dope but what kind of lengths can you go? pull a Vincent van Gogh just to convince a demn ho to be a house wife who outrights lies shes's blackout drunk now she's backing out my drive I ran outside why's she tryna act out?

she's about my size hit me in the mouth twice guys, when someone you'd die for sticks a steak knife in your heart do you try more?
another late night in she stumbles through my door lets the daylight in and all we do's fight more and I ain't violent but she's going through my drawers to plan the K_Y I;m getting accused by a whore who smells like St. Ides and who's probably screwed 5 more Guy sucked 8/9 men I'm taking 2-by-4 to our 8-by-tens bitch it's you I tore out the frame, I win put up a new high score, beat this game I'm in and here's some 2-ply for when you date my friends in order to wipe your ass when you moved your bowels when we renewed our vows this the thanks I get?
I;m waiting for the day I can hear you sat:
Marshal, what a skank I;ve been and there's a new guy you're being replaced by him" got your tubes tied for him got that boob job for him hurts me to my core but the pain I;m in after you
I swore to make the grey skies end here come the rays like when you get a pay hike and am I the good guy or do I justr play like him and hope that he dumps you?

it's like a dream come true just to scam: Fuck you! guess you take life in the same way you pplay dice then cause you just look at me and roll them little snake eyes in since

Since you bought the jury, they'll call me guilty
They'll call me guilty
You bought the jury, they'll call me guilty
Even though you know the real me
You can't beat a cheater, convince a nonbeliever
And I ain't in my feelings, I'm out
But I let you say that you're the good guy
Cause this ain't what love looks like
Play like, "You're the good guy."
Play like, play like, play like, "You're the good guy."
