Eminem, Two Of You

Two Of You (Track 12 on "Rotator") Why tell me why There's a river to cry tonight Oh why Try don't you try You can never deny what's right Don't you try Look at me Caught In your mystery I'm giving twice the feeling And I'm not receiving Now my head is turning And my eyes are burning It's the truth I'm learning What am I to do With two of you Why tell me why There's a river to cry tonight Oh why Try don't you try You can never deny what's right Don't you try I can see You made a fool of me And you've been double dealing This is so revealing Which of you is Mary I can't tell it can't be You've both been deceiving What am I to do With two of you
