

Emirsian, All On Your Own

You say you can only lose
You fall and were all amused
You care while we stand in line
To spit in your clever eyes
Give up find some kind of muse
You're bored but you can't refuse
Places you don't want to see
Take a part deep inside of me
All on your own
You're feeling lonely now
You're feeling lost somehow
In the dark
As we walk and make plans in the dark
We wait for something high above
You can't afford your own defeat
Your lips get dry while we speak
All on your own
You're feeling lonely now
In the dark
