

Emirsian, Hurt

We can cross another dimension
Leaving all our tension behind
Each dream of life I'll share with you
I was lost but I was still hoping
I got hurt but I did the same thing
Break the kindest heart of all
You always hurt the one you love the most
The one you shouldn't hurt at all, you've lost
What meant so much to you
Got to face that I did say nothing
I turned my back and walked away laughing
Tears were coming through
You always hurt the one you love the most
The one who's always hurt the most
This need is a cancer in me
I can feel it advancing in me
Maybe it's time to break on through
You always hurt the one you love the most
The one you shouldn't hurt at all, you've lost
What meant so much to you
Got to face that I did say nothing
I turned my back and walked away laughing
Tears were coming through
You always hurt the one you love the most
The one who's always hurt the most
Love the most
