

Emm Gryner, The Day We Hit The Coast

I'm going down to the river, I'm going down to the river
Walking on the rocks in the water, I'm going down to the river
I felt the cool commotion, as it poured into the ocean
I remember that day the most, the day we hit the coast
The day we hit the coast, the day we hit the coast
The day we hit the coast

I'm going out to the mountain, I'm going up and into the mountain
Where the prairies they collide in the courtyard
Going up and into the mountain
We felt the cool, cool breeze, blowing cooler to the east
Blowing cooler to the east, blowing cooler to the east
The day we hit the coast, the day we hit the coast
The day we hit the coast

I'm getting colder and colder, my bodies getting colder and colder
Sun's beating down on the water, but my bodies getting colder and colder
The waves they sound like thunder, and they pull my body under
And I remember that day the most, the day we hit the coast
The day we hit the coast, the day we hit the coast
The day we hit the coast, the day we hit the coast
