

Emm Gryner, The End

Here comes the end of March
And I'm failing all the time
My love carved his name in me
Carefully but full of might
See my head spinning
As surely as the planet
Justify why should I?
He'd never come to stand it
What is this?
This foreign breath I'm lying with
Thieves are never sweet

CHORUS

Only the end only the end
Only the end I'm dying through
Only the end only the end
Give me trust and faith and all the things I had

I trade my blessings
For a way to open up
A toss up of meaning and hello care to make love?
Give me punishment
Or say I'm a normal girl
Some would say "You just need to get through You've got everything to learn"
What is this
Hands that hold me differently
Thieves are never sweet

CHORUS

Trust and faith and all the things I had

I kissed a marionette that didn't move
Stronger ever day without you
Reached for a crown and it wasn't there
I got a fat sticky mess and I'm feeling pretty bare
I'm feeling pretty bare (2x)

What is this
And it's all mine
I'm stained all through my insides

CHORUS

Trust and faith and all the things I had
I'm stained all through my insides
Through my insides (2x)
