

Emmanuelle Seigner, Let's Do Some Damage

We will collide
Time and again
These are fights
We never end
We will try
As hard as we can
To hurt each other
We will despise
What we've become
We will wonder
What we've done
We will lie
And all of the lies
We've only discovered

And if this
Is the best
We can manage oh oh
Well then
Come on come on /x2
Let's do some damage
Let's do some damage

We will deny
The way that we feel
We will pretend
It isn't real
I'll waste your time
And you'll waste mine
Just out of habit
What's on our minds
Oh hopes are not fears
We'll become seen
We years and years
We'll see our chance
But we'll never
Reach it and grab it

And if this
Is the best
We can manage oh oh
Well then
Come on come on /x2
Let's do some damage
Let's do some damage
