

Emmanuelle Seigner, Such a hard time

All I want is a little space
I turn around and you in my face
Why are you giving me
such a hard time tonight, tonight, tonight can't relax cause you're too intense you criticize and you make no sense
Why are you giving me
such a hard time tonight

Cause if you cry just too unwind
And talk to our friend are too
I can't explain but you had my grade
I'm not in a mood to deal with you /x2

You're trying hard to start a fight
You denied me I feel nothing right
Why are you giving me
such a hard time tonight, tonight, tonight

All I want is to have some fun
You ruined it for every one
Why are you giving me
such a hard time tonight, tonight, tonight /x3
