

EMMI, Running Back To You

I give myself away every time I see you, feel you
Im like a toy you play with, that is me and thats
How I am, yes I am
Pieces fall in to place, like a puzzle you mix me, fix me
And I dont want no other, why should I cos you fill me
Thrill me

When you play with me nicely baby its fun
Dont understand why you hurt me
How come you're the one?

I need your touch, it means so much
And its what keeps me running back
I need your touch, it means so much
And its what keeps me running back

Running back to you, running back to you
Running back to you, baby
Running back to you, running back to you
Running back to you, I keep on running back to you

Were leaving others confused, I dont mind
Cos its clear to me, I can see
Im always right behind you
Yes you have everything I need, yeah indeed
Love you all over again
All the way then, until the end, very end
Your kisses make me crumble,
Make me wish time would stop each time
You are mine
