

EMMI, Stay

When the morning has come
And the light is still young
Lay with me so peacefully
Stay with me and you will see

How beautiful
As we come one with the morning
So magical
As we embrace with the light
Stay
Oh, so peaceful and calm
Stay
Well be one with the dawn

I feel when you rise
I can feel that your mine
And I begin to fall so deep
So deep within your need

When the morning has come
And light is still young
We should be so peacefully
We should learn now how to be

How beautiful
As we come one with the morning
Stay
Well be one with the dawn
You're here in my arms
You're here in my arms
And all is calm
