

Emmy The Great, First Love

I remember how we met but your name I forget like the door that I have kept unopened

I remember it was wet and the swelter and the sweat and the shelter of the bed we were cloaked in

You were stroking me like a pet but you didn't own me yet and the tape in the cassette deck was choking Spat out a broken hallelujah

But I've seen the way the earth throws its aces with a curve
You were waiting for the words to come to yer.

Just to say that you prefer to be lonely to be cursed and to do the very worst you can do.

Yeah I remember you like a verse that I didn't want to learn I just looked into your eyes and I knew yer.

Now the thought of you is burnt on my body from the first time you did rewind that line from Hallelujah.
The original Leonard Cohen version.

Well I wish I never met you that day
You said I have a room and music to play
I have a room let me show you the way
I wish that I'd never come

But now that I have, I would do it again
I would forget like I'd piss on a grave

I would forget like I'd piss on a grave that the words as they came to my tongue were hallelujah. Hallelujah!
And the sky was so much bluer
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
And the world was so much newer.

You said I have a room
at the top of the stairs
I have a room with a view
I know we all have a cross that we bear and I'd like to show it to you.

And you left me in the light and you met me in the light and we only had a night between the two.

You were waiting for the worst
You were listening for a curse but the only thing I heard was hallelujah.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
And the sky was so much bluer
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
And the world was so much newer.

you said I have a room
at the top of the stairs.
I have a room with a view.
I know we all have a cross that we bear and I'd like to give it to you.

And I won't forget how the sky was set I said I have a place to go back to.
La La La I will have you yet
I will carry you there if I have to.

No I won't forget no I won't.
No I won't forget no I won't
No I won't forget no I won't
No I won't forget no.

Woah. Woah. Woah. W-o-o-o-ah.
First love.
