

Emo Side Project, A Perfect Day

searching for the right words to say never came so easily on this so a perfect day we'll find a way to make our love last as it has before rolling around upon the floor saying words i have before i love you

and on this perfect day we'll sing your favorite songs all day long the wind blows a bunch of leaves up in the air and they circle us like a heart and mess up my hair i mess up yours

we'll watch scary movies ill hold onto you you'll onto me we'll hold onto our love and ill whisper in your ear one more time

we'll take a walk in the park and hold hands remember the past other couples will watch jealously as i hold you close to me

never came so easily
on this so a perfect day with you
