

Emo Side Project, A Weeks Worth Of Tears

i found you on a Saturday lost you on a Sunday fell in love with you again on Monday the weeks pass by so slowly but i know one thing ill be in love with you on Tuesday and if you choose to keep me I would be so happy but if I not I guess Ill feel so crappy and I guess ill get over it probably throw another fit and curl into a ball, in the corner the weeks pass by the days never change and either does my love for you Ill give you this song so you can sing along when you feel alone

the days would be much better without this crappy weather like every single day we've had before us hey remember Thursday I think that was the best day but hey Friday night was all right too

Ill come around and say Im yours hey turn that frown upside down and turn your hate into love and still I wont give up on the week on the year and on you
