

Emo Side Project, Desperation In Am late that night on wendesday you said you were somebodys girl but it came as no surprise no you were meant to rule the world and all i ever wanted was the truth and nothing else so i didn't yell, no i didn't yell

i'm locking my door and i'm crying my eyes out baby i'm crying my eyes out, no i won't get to sleep tonight and try not to be so mean to the next unlucky guy i'm crying my eyes out
baby i'm crying my eyes out.

said you'd never hurt me that was the first lie i assumed you really loved me yeah i'm just another fool and i handed you my heart but you ignored my generosity i could never take it back no, i could never take it back

baby i'm crying my eyes out
so he won't have to cry so much and he can get to sleep at night i'm sick of this i'm sick of truth

i'm sick of love i'm sick of trying i'm sick of life
i'm sick of trust
i'm sick of hope and i'm sick of you yeah it hurts too much so why waste my breath on you
