

Emo Side Project, Early Spring

there's some things that i can't say when i talk to you ive been thinking recently about you im throwing myself off this cliff because i can't believe i have you and all i want is what you want and i dont know what im thinking about but i know is it's you

and all i need is you right now and early spring is the best time to fall in love with you so here's to these daily leaps of faith hoping nothings gone wrong today sometimes i wonder how time flies by so fast but it stops, when i'm with you

and early spring is

and i hope you understand that im in love with you

all i really want is you
is you is you is me with you
