

Emo Side Project, Fictional Lullaby

if you could sing to me one more time before you left me behind i swear it'd make my life

if you could sing me to sleep tonight it would be the sweetest lullaby and i would hardly sleep a note id write for you tonight thanking you for everything you've ever done for me sing to me about the sweetest dreams i love your voice

i love everything about you ill miss you always

would it be a fictional lullaby? just another silly lie and when o hold your hand so tight tonight will we make out under the stars and when i sing to you tonight ill try not to cry cause you know id give everything for you
