

Emo Side Project, I Wouldn't Trade This For The

everyday i wake up i'm in love with you so much and i wouldnt have it any other way slip on my jeans, tie my shoes get in my car i'm off to see you it's a fairy tale thats come to life you're the princess and i'm the prince i can't believe that you feel the same for me but you do, but you do take my hand and grasp it tight hold me all through the night said i wanna spend forever with you whatever happens we can get through i am yours and you are mine for now and until the end of time i never knew i could be so happy thank you for all thats happened and i just want you to know i wouldnt trade this for the world do i dare to say the three words, i love you i want to but i'm scared of what it could mean what if you dont like me back and would you ever say it too maybe so maybe not ok i'll dare, i said it now i hope you're happy just let it slip out of my mouth oh you love me too? i'm so happy i could die i think my heart just skipped a beat but instead of dying i hold you tight, i love you i love you!

i've never felt this much for anyone
