

Emo Side Project, Never Say Never

it's monday and i'm already worn out from last week and my heart break is still easily standing its ground but this week everythings changing i promise i won't give up on you, i won't never say never yes it could be better but perfect for me, isnt perfect for you and all that i ask for is you in my arms and happier days and for us to live on and i'm reaching, for a hand to guide me i found one it's yours we're better than friends so dont try to use that line i won't take no for an answer they said if you try, you will succeed and darling you mean the world to me just give it a chance, i'll give it my all and we won't have to worry, about being alone
