

Emo Side Project, Paper Airplanes

tried so hard to fit in never did it hurt me so to just let go never will, never will last so long never ends voice so low just let go never speak, never sleep

paper airplanes are never the same after theyre flown once in the air it's always the same i always remain helpless and alone again tears ive cried never came like your hate never ends never begins until i see your face
