

Emo Side Project, Piano Song can't you see what being in love with you does to me i've been up all night trying to figure out a way to let you know:

you are the best that i'll ever have
and i'll never, i'll never, i'll never, let you go weak in the knees and i can't speak i've been like this the whole week but it's so much fun, it's so much fun to be in love with you
